Hopeful Deficit of

W. R. ARMSTRONG
Editor and Correspondent
W. R. Armstrong, Oct. 30. (Exclusive) The political campaign has national prosperity and business rests upon the foundations in the spin-off Coolidge. After a year of general business the only satisfactory development, made public this week, may well be the success of the campaign of Robert Hoover to retain the Presidency in the support of the Presidential candidate later this year. It is believed this is the case in the campaign before Mr. Coolidge finds the original Coolidge-in-33 man.

Will Rogers Remarks:

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—(To the Editor of The Times:) I will say one thing about this campaign, after running for months without an "issue" they have finally found one, that is, the Republicans have. It's Smith, that's their issue.

Alone is drawing the crowds. If I was him I wouldn't care whether I was elected or not. He can go in vaudeville and make more than a President, cause there is always plenty of things to denounce as long as there is a Republican administration.

Coolidge won't come out for either side, he is afraid it will be held against him in 1932. Paste that in your hat and remember it. I am the original Coolidge-in-33 man.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

RAIL WAGE RISE URGED

Board Reports to Coolidge

Increase Favored for 66,000
on Western Lines With Retroactive Clause

Two Proposals Submitted and President Has Hopes of Averting Strike

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP)—Increases of wages for 66,000 employees of western railroads were recommended to President Coolidge today by an emergency board, headed by James R. Garrick, appointed to investigate the administration's policy in the Treasury.

The board, whose findings and unions concerned, suggests an alternative method of awarding
wages, more in line with the recommendations of the arbitration panel
that the additional may be granted
retroactively, effective May 1, 1929.

In explaining its findings, the board suggested that a 6-1 per cent increase for conductors recommended by the railroads, and which was to go to the railroad executives and unions concerned, suggests an alternative method of awarding
wages, more in line with the recommendations of the arbitration panel
that the additional may be granted
retroactively, effective May 1, 1929.

year, the last of his administra-over the $100,000 deficit pre-is ready to make the country was

HUGHES UPSETS SMITH FANCIES

Cold Logic Turned on Plans for Modern Utopia

Government Operation Held Dangerous Policy

A's Trend That Way Said to be Inevitable

(Continued from First Page) question. If he does not know where he stands, then I suppose that would explain why he has said that he would appoint a commission."

POWER ISSUE

Turning to the question of power, Mr. Hughes asserted that Gov. Smith has not stated, "despite his constant protestations of entire candor on the platform, in language that anybody can understand, whether he favors government operation of hydroelectric plants."

"There is no issue on government control between him and Mr. Hoover," said Mr. Hughes. "In Gov. Smith in favor of the building by the government of transmission lines and distribution of electrical power? Does he propose that the government should undertake the generation and sale and distribution of power? If so, and he can have it, then he should have to contemplate a vast governmental business in the future with new bureaus and a host of offices with all the difficulties which adhere in governmental business administration."

"Now, if Gov. Smith does not favor the government going into the business of operation, then let him say so distinctly, and he and Mr. Hoover will be found much closer together."

MINOR QUESTION

Reiterating that he does not consider himself a real issue in the campaign, Mr. Hughes said that in a recent campaign speech he had stated "tariff incapable."

Mr. Hughes said his answer to Gov. Smith's question as to whether he—Hughes—is satisfied with present conditions is "most decided."

"I do not want to say that conditions made worse and that believe that would be the result of his (Smith's) election. He would not change the Constitution or the laws, but I believe there would ensue greater discrimination than there is now, and that the difficulties of obtaining even the measure of enforcement that we now have would be far greater."

ARCTIC EXPLORER BARS COLLEGE ATHLETES AS UNFIT FOR ORDEAL

CHICAGO, Oct. 30. (Exclusive)—The college athlete is a "fash in the pan on a two-year ice marathon," said Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Arctic explorer today, in discussing the men he chooses to accompany him on his perilous journeys. Continuing, he said:

"The college athlete pane out below the average of men I have taken to the Arctic, so I leave him at home. I should like to live with the men who ask to accompany me."

Constitution and that it can be changed only by the action of thirty-six States. He has not questioned that Congress cannot authorize what the Constitution expressly forbids.

"Gov. Smith says he will appeal to the people," said Mr. Hughes. "That is a good method, but in this case it is better to do it with the Federal Constitution, which requires the action of thirty-six States. That is quite different from an appeal to the people with respect to legislation or even the constitution of a State."

TEST OF ECONOMY

The test of an economical administration, Mr. Hughes declared, is "is its success in meeting proper demands without inordinate outlays."

LIQUOR PROBLEM

"Gov. Smith tells us he has telegrammed to members of Congress to ascertain whether they are with him in his tariff policy. If this is not a sham battle over prohibition, why has he not telegraphed the Democratic leaders in the South and West advising their followers that Gov. Smith will be helpless to accomplish what he advocates? If this is not a sham battle with the majority of the Democratic candidates for the House and Senate running on a platform pledging themselves to support the Eighteenth Amendment?"

Mr. Hughes said his answer to Gov. Smith's question as to whether he—Hughes—is satisfied with present conditions is "most decided."

"I do not want to say that conditions made worse and that believe that would be the result of his (Smith's) election. He would not change the Constitution or the laws, but I believe there would ensue greater discrimination than there is now, and that the difficulties of obtaining even the measure of enforcement that we now have would be far greater."

ARGUMENT RIPED

With Gov. Smith in the Presidency, Mr. Hughes declared, "the country would not believe that the prohibition policy was being fairly and honestly tested" and enforcement under a Smith administration "certainly would not be any easier."

"Gov. Smith's right raises his hand to heaven and swear that he was trying to enforce the prohibitory law," said Mr. Hughes. "But the country would not accept any permanent arrangement that would not be an adequate test. Without testing his sincerity—although I do not believe that he thinks he would enforce the law—I am quite confident the country would never accept enforcement by a wet as a test of prohibition."

TARIFF DISCUSSED

Mr. Hughes gave considerable time to discussion of the Democratic tariff position, pointing out that the party always has placed fairness to all interests, but that "we do not trust their opinion on what is fair."

"Gov. Smith," he said, "says the Democratic party will not agree to a tariff which would not conform with 'American standards of living and level of wages.' That is precisely what the Democratic party has always promised, but its record live with them for months before we start. Then I could make the right selections and have only admirable company."

"Cold and hunger are hardships that real men face cheerfully. The worst possible drag on an Arctic trip is to think of the party miserable, so, as far as possible, I bar them. I ignore the physique of men in picking my crews, but choose them for their dispositions."

Does he propose that the government should undertake the generation and sale and distribution of power? If so, and he can have it, then he should have to contemplate a vast governmental business in the future with new bureaus and a host of offices with all the difficulties which adhere in governmental business administration."

"Now, if Gov. Smith does not favor the government going into the business of operation, then let him say so distinctly, and he and Mr. Hoover will be found much closer together."

MINOR QUESTION

Reiterating that he does not consider himself a real issue in the campaign, Mr. Hughes said that in a recent campaign speech he had stated "tariff incapable."

Mr. Hughes said his answer to Gov. Smith's question as to whether he—Hughes—is satisfied with present conditions is "most decided."

"I do not want to say that conditions made worse and that believe that would be the result of his (Smith's) election. He would not change the Constitution or the laws, but I believe there would ensue greater discrimination than there is now, and that the difficulties of obtaining even the measure of enforcement that we now have would be far greater."

ARGUMENT RIPED

With Gov. Smith in the Presidency, Mr. Hughes declared, "the country would not believe that the prohibition policy was being fairly and honestly tested" and enforcement under a Smith administration "certainly would not be any easier."

"Gov. Smith's right raises his hand to heaven and swear that he was trying to enforce the prohibitory law," said Mr. Hughes. "But the country would not accept any permanent arrangement that would not be an adequate test. Without testing his sincerity—although I do not believe that he thinks he would enforce the law—I am quite confident the country would never accept enforcement by a wet as a test of prohibition."

TARIFF DISCUSSED

Mr. Hughes gave considerable time to discussion of the Democratic tariff position, pointing out that the party always has placed fairness to all interests, but that "we do not trust their opinion on what is fair."

"Gov. Smith," he said, "says the Democratic party will not agree to a tariff which would not conform with 'American standards of living and level of wages.' That is precisely what the Democratic party has always promised, but its record

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (P)—The second day of the homeward journey of the German dirigible Graf Zeppelin found the huge air liner over mid-Atlantic with the likelihood that she will not reach her destination much before tomorrow night or perhaps even Thursday morning.

TEST OF ECONOMY

The test of an economical administration, Mr. Hughes declared, is "is its success in meeting proper demands without inordinate outlays."

LIQUOR PROBLEM

"Gov. Smith tells us he has telegrammed to members of Congress to ascertain whether they are with him in his tariff policy. If this is not a sham battle over prohibition, why has he not telegraphed the Democratic leaders in the South and West advising their followers that Gov. Smith will be helpless to accomplish what he advocates? If this is not a sham battle with the majority of the Democratic candidates for the House and Senate running on a platform pledging themselves to support the Eighteenth Amendment?"

Discussing the question of the qualifications of the two candidates, Mr. Hughes said there seems to be "but little room for hesitation." As Governor, Gov. Smith had hardly touched the important difficulties which he would have to face as President. I do not think he knows much about them."

HONEYMOONERS TO TOUR WORLD

Calles's Daughter as Bride Plans Long Trip

Civil Ceremony Will Unite Young Couple

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 30. (AP)—President Calles's daughter, Alicia, considered one of the most beautiful girls in Mexico, will take a wedding trip around the world after she is married here November 4 to Jorge Almada, son of a prominent family of sugar planters of the State of Sinaloa.

At 22 years of age and her fiance, 22, both have studied and traveled in the United States and Alicia speaks English as readily as Spanish, as does another of the President's daughters, who is engaged to an American, Thomas Arnold Robinson, a resident of Mexico City.

CIVIL CEREMONY

The wedding will be performed in the civil ceremony at the private residence here of President Calles, where he has already moved and will continue to live after he retires from the Presidency. Only members of the families and a few close friends will be present. The couple will leave at once for San Francisco to sail for Honolulu, Japan and China. From the Far East they will go to Europe and then to New York. Upon returning to Mexico they will live at the Almada hacienda in Sinaloa.

IMPOSING WITNESSES

The witnesses at the civil ceremony will be the late President Calles, Provisional President-elect Forbes Gil and Dr. Puig Casaurane, Secretary of Industry, Commerce and Labor. Thomas Arnold Robinson, the President's

For years the proposal to light the Louvre by electricity has been opposed on the ground of fire risk which wiring installation in the building would represent, but since the success of electricity in the national library, which houses the most valuable manuscripts, the Louvre authorities desired to adopt more modern methods.

SOME DIFFICULTY

Alicia Calles has spent considerable time in California and New York City, visiting and studying New York is her favorite place outside Mexico.

Blackmer fled to France rather than face trial in the notorious Tarnpot Dome case, in which he was summoned to testify concerning his connection with the Continental Trading Company. He was indicted several months ago in Denver, in connection with his income-tax return.

Steps were taken to confine

Blackmer to his residence, and on June 5, 1928, a writ of attachment was filed on any and all property held by Mr. Blackmer in twenty-two companies. Extradition papers were drawn up, and President Coolidge personally requested the United States Attorney General to have them sent to the French government.

Blackmer's lawyer, Samuel G. Archibald, denied that his client is逃避 justice, and of course, he

Tenders Will be Opened by West December 10

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP)—Secretary West today invited sealed bids for the royalty oil accruing to the government from leases on land in the Salt Creek field in Wyoming, the bids to be opened December 10.

The contracts are to be for a period of three years beginning January 1, 1929. The bids must be based upon the highest posted field price for oil of light gravity in Oklahoma and Texas or in Wyoming.

For the calendar year 1927, the total government royalty oil from the Salt Creek field amounted to approximately 1,900,000 barrels and for the period from January 1 to August 31, last, to approximately 1,300,000 barrels, the average gravity in both years being in the range from 36 to 38.9 deg.

The modern automobile is a finely built piece of machinery and it will stand a lot of abuse. Considering the work it does, it gives surprisingly little trouble. But there isn't a car made that will not run better and longer if given proper care.

The first few hundred miles are especially important because that is when the mechanism of your car is being broken in. Proper attention during this period will lengthen its life and prevent unnecessary trouble later on.

We are particularly interested in this matter because we believe it is our duty not only to make a good automobile, but to help the owner get the greatest possible use over the longest period of time at a minimum of trouble and expense.

With this in view, the entire Ford dealer organization has been specially trained and equipped to service the new Model A car.

Furthermore, we have instructed every Ford dealer to give the following Free Inspection at 500, 1,000 and 1,500 miles:

Check battery
Check generator charging rate
Check distributor adjustment
Check carburetor adjustment
Check lights
Check brakes
Check shock absorber adjustment
Check tire inflation
Check steering gear
Change engine oil
Lubricate chassis

No charge is made for labor or materials incident to this service, except, of course, that repairs are necessary from accident, misuse or neglect. The only charge is for new oil.

See your Ford dealer, therefore, and get this Free Inspection of your new car at 500, 1,000 and 1,500 miles. Find out, too, how little it will cost to have your car given a thorough going-over at regular periods thereafter.

A periodic checking up together, with oiling and greasing every 500 miles, will add months and years to the life of your car and mean more economical and pleasurable motoring every mile you drive.

ELECTION BOARD IN OHIO OUSTED

Entire Cuyahoga County Group Removed

Secretary of State Seizes Control of Polls

Officials Accused of Forgery, Falsifying and Stuffing

CLEVELAND, Oct. 30. (AP)—The entire Cuyahoga county election board was removed from office today by Clarence J. Brown, Secretary of State, and the duties of the board were taken over by his office for asserted irregularities in the August primary election.

Brown's action went beyond a recent recommendation of a special grand jury, in that it included Mrs. Bernice S. Pyke, Democratic National committeewoman from Ohio and a member of the board. The grand jury, which last Friday charged the board with malfeasance and irregularities in the conduct of the primary, had exonerated Mrs. Pyke from its recommendations that the remaining three members of the board and its employees be removed.

ELECTION CONTROL SEIZED

A removal notice was served on the board at its office by Joe Baird, assistant Secretary of State, after Brown and Baird had conferred with Atty.-Gen. Turner, who directed an investigation of the special grand jury into charges that the board permitted irregularities in the primary.

The action placed the machinery of conducting the November 6 election in Brown's hands, but he would not say immediately whether he would appoint a new board or direct the election with a staff of associates from his office.

Charges of ballot box stuffing, forgery, falsification of returns, general neglect and carelessness, and "want of sound regard of duties" were Brown's excuse to Cleveland resulted from the grand jury recommendations. As the Secretary of State and State supervisor of elections he has the sole right to act in such cases.

The jury also reported there were approximately 2000 errors in the election officers' count. Of this number 500 were said to have been made in the Democratic tallies and the remainder in the Republican count.

MORE VOTES THAN VOTERS

Another assertion was that in more than 200 Cuyahoga county precincts the tally showed more votes cast and recorded than there were voters.

Documentary evidence also indicated that the names of asserted voters in some districts were cast in order of their place on the list. The officials who were removed were Harry L. French, Democratic chairman of the board; Alex Bernstein, Republican ward leader, member of the board; Thomas S. McNeil, Republican board member; Mrs. Pyke, A. J. Hirstius, chairman of the Republican county executive committee and the board's clerk, and Stephen A. McNeil, Democratic deputy clerk.

Muere "Barbasu" Cuando Ya No A Verso su Cama

—MARSELLA (Francia), Octubre 30.—Ha muerto hoy en la prisión Pierre Rey, alias Jerome Prat, el famoso ladrón que robó el tesoro de la estatua de tres de los carileones, en la célebre tumba de Nefertiti, en Egipto poco después de su muerte. La semana pasada hubo varias audiencias relacionadas con el procedimiento numérico que presentaron gran variedad testimoniales que demostraban su responsabilidad en muchos crímenes.

Las sospechas contra Rey nacieron de que se encontró estrangulado a una mujer que era dueña de una casa de campo en la que se cometió el asesinato. Fue arrestado Rey en Argel, después de que la policía había exhumado cerca de su "víctima" los cadáveres de otras dos mujeres.

MISSSTATEMENTS LAID TO SMITH

McBride Says Wilson's Dry Stand Misrepresented

Remarks Made in Reply to Baltimore Speech

Anti-Saloon Head Defends Other Democrats

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (Exclusive)—F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, today issued the following statement:

"Woodrow Wilson's attitude on prohibition legislation has been consistently misrepresented by Gov. Ritchie to this campaign. At Baltimore last night he again sought to give the impression that Woodrow Wilson has vetoed the Volstead Act because he vetoed that measure. This is deliberate misrepresentation of Wilson's views."

Gov. Ritchie in making reference to Dr. Straton, said: "I hope he loves his God as much as he does his publicity."

Dr. Straton proposed that the debate be held in Baltimore Monday night, November 6, the question to be as follows:

"Resolved: That in the light of his obvious lawless spirit and his known record of opposition to righteous law and the greater good of the war had been concluded. Since President Wilson's view that the two measures should have been separated.

"His attitude toward prohibition is reflected in the last sentence of his veto message which reads: 'In no other way can the salutary object sought be accomplished or great reforms of that character made satisfactory or permanent.'

His VIEWS POINTED TO

"President Wilson's prohibition views also are indicated by his record on prohibition bills. In 1919 he signed the bill which Gov. Smith was fighting for the saloon and against local option to the very limit in the State of New York. Woodrow Wilson openly supported local option in New Jersey. Woodrow Wilson was the first President to sign a wartime禁酒令. He signed the bill making the District of Columbia dry when his veto would have defeated it. He signed the bill providing for the prohibition of beer which was twice as strong as beer dry. He signed the bill which made the Territory of Alaska dry.

"During the war period while Smith was fighting the saloon in New York, Wilson signed a number of emergency bills providing the manufacture and sale of beer in connection with various war activities. It was under Wilson's administration that the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution was submitted to the states. It is well known that Wilson could easily have prevented the submission of Constitutional prohibition.

LETTERS TO GLASS SIGHTED

"Further proof of Wilson's attitude toward the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act is contained in a letter written to Senator Glass by Woodrow Wilson. In this letter Wilson writes: 'The Eighteenth Amendment should remain unchanged and the Volstead Act should remain unchanged.' In referring to this letter Joseph Daniels on Oct. 13, last, stated: 'It was a very long letter and Senator Glass has given out only this extract because it was the only one which appears upon Wilson's mature conviction as to the permanence of the Volstead Act and the importance of its permanence.'

"Gov. Smith's attitude on prohibition is not only out of harmony with views held by Woodrow Wilson, other great Democratic leaders and the past. Some well known leaders are also completely contrary to the views of the overwhelming majority of the Democratic members of Congress and the Democratic governors of the nation. Smith's liquor plans furthermore are contrary to Democratic principles set forth in the national party platform."

Reed Attacks Hoover Food Price Record

CHICAGO, Oct. 30. (AP)—Senator Reed of Missouri spent an hour to night flying Herbert Hoover for his activities in connection with the control of farm product prices during and after the World War.

"Perhaps the most innocent misrepresentation ever made in a political contest is the claim in the Republican campaign book that Mr. Hoover sustained the prices of American farm products both during and after the war, and that he has never been the friend and benefactor of American agriculture," declared the white-haired veteran.

The Senator said in previous speeches he had demonstrated that the price of farm products at the end of the war to regulate the price of farm products, and he would "prove tonight that the Republican nominee persistently sought to depress farm product prices."

Mabel Wires Appreciation

In reply to a telegram from the California Democratic Hoover Club inquiring her stand on prohibition, Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrand wired the club yesterday:

"I was delighted to receive a telegram from the Hoover Democratic of my own State. It is particularly heartening to have a word from you and I genuinely appreciate your expressions."

Straw Ballot Fraud Denied

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (AP)—The Postoffice Department issued a statement today showing it had taken cognizance of published reports in the last that ballots in the Literary Digest straw vote had been improperly handled for Herbert Hoover by post office employees.

The statement declared that Postmaster-General New had ordered an investigation on the strength of statements by T. Alexander Gardner, the Literary Digest editor, who said he had received letters from postal employees saying such a practice was being followed.

"If he could do this in the American government," Gardner added, "he would lift a huge burden from the backs of the taxpayers."

Requa Spikes Debts Canard

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30. (Exclusive)—A brand new campaign canard having to do with foreign war debts was spiced here today by Mark L. Requa, executive director for Republican forces in California.

He said he had been apprised of reports which have gained incredible circulation that during the recent visit here of Sir Austin Chamberlain, British Foreign Minister, he had visited Sir Austin on behalf of Herbert Hoover to discuss cancellation or reduction of foreign debts.

The direct charge, Requa said, was made in an address at McWayne.

"Sir Austin met with me in an effort to discredit Herbert Hoover through his management of the Alaskan salmon fisheries was a 'cold-blooded' put out for the purpose of swaying the Indian vote," Requa said.

Canard executives were told to the United States Marshal White of Juneau.

"The fact is," he declared, "that Alaska Indians never have been so prosperous. I'm a member of the Indian Board of Alaska and I know the conditions of the Indians."

PRICE OF SEATS ON MARTS SOAR.

Exchange Membership Sells for $125,000

Value Five Times That of January Last

Transaction of Curb Market Also Hits Peak

Two new records were established for the price of formal stock exchange by the announcement yesterday of arrangements completed for transfer of a membership on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange at $125,000, and sale of a membership on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange for $25,000.

The sale of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange seat entitles the holder to membership on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange. The curb seat is given to the holder of the membership, and given to all members of the stock exchange when the curb was founded June, last. Only a nominal value has been placed on this membership, which is nontransferable as a separate item.

The new price exceeds the previous record and last transaction by $25,000, or 35 per cent. In January last memberships were transferred at $25,000. Compared with the previous record, the market is allowing a nominal value for curb privileges, the transaction places the local market in fourth place in point of value of exchange memberships. The record is the New York Curb Exchange, which stands in third place with the latest seat sale at $125,000.

Value of the newest memberships of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, determined by the new records, is now more than five times the value at the beginning of the year, and reaches an aggregate of $87,750,000, a gain of $7,750,000 since January last.

The sale of the Los Angeles Curb Exchange, announced yesterday, was a treasury seat of that organization. The new high price at $25,000 is an increase of $2000 over the previous highest sale established last year. There is now a total of forty-six memberships on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange.

LOUISVILLE RAILROAD IN FINANCING ACTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. (Exclusive)—Louisville and Nashville Railroad has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for authority to procure authentication and delivery of $11,425,000 series "C" first and refunding certificates $16 per cent, which will mature April 1, 1930, and will be held in the carrier's treasury until further order of commission. The road has plans for future development of its car fleet and for other capital expenditures which will require all monies realized from sale of bonds. Bonds will be disposed of from time to time when favorable market conditions so permit, and will be repayable at 100 per cent of par on October 1, 1930, or any interest date thereafter.

KOLSTER NEW RADIO KING

Patent Decision and Chilean Contract Draw Attention of Speculators; is Pacific Coast Company

BY EARL R. CROWE

Kolster Radio, one of the stocks that the Pacific Coast recently introduced to the New York Stock Exchange, has become something of a mid-sensation in the last few days as a radio stock of special promise. The De Forest patent victory in the United States Supreme Court and the Chilean concession awarded to International Telephones and Telegraph are the principal developments calling attention to Kolster.

Through the Supreme Court decision, Kolster takes rank with the Radio Corporation of America as one of the two companies permitted to operate independently in the field of radio communication. The decision, however, covers the fundamental oscillation, action vacuum tube and the feedback circuit, were acquired by Kolster when Lee De Forest, the inventor, was in the employ of one of its predecessor companies. The radio patents cover radio equipment and selling rights on radio equipment.

CALIFORNIA TAX ON OIL SALES TOLD

Report on Third-Quarter Volume Led by Standard, Shell and Union

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 20. (AP)—California's tax on $17,921,761.9 gallons of gasoline distributed during the third quarter of 1928 amounted to $85,271,250. It was announced today by the State Board of Equalization.

The distribution for July, August and September, in comparison with the corresponding period in 1927, represented an increase of $1.7 per cent, 4.63 per cent less than the percentage of increase for the third quarter of 1927.

It was predicted by the board that $30,000,000, its estimate for the year, will be exceeded, even after refunds are made for gasoline used for nonhighway purposes.

Considered in the light of Kolster's affiliation with the Mackay companies and International Telephone and Telegraph, the tax is a heavy one. The patent decision clears the way for clean-cut competition in radio communication between International Telephone and Mackay on one side, and the Radio Corporation of America on the other. Under the new arrangement, International Telephone became the exclusive manufacturer, for a period of twenty years, of all radio and allied equipment required by the Mackay companies. The independent Power Telegraph Company agreed in August, 1927, to break the royalty agreements that inspired the litigation just closed.

International's income was $77,006,855 against $74,050,823 for the corresponding period of 1927, equal to a per cent increase of 4.07 per cent.

Consolidated net income in the third quarter was $1,127,000 as compared with $1,127,000 for the second quarter of 1927.

POMONA LEADER DIES SUDDENLY

Leroy H. Civille Victim of Cerebral Attack
Falls During Talk With Rev. Bob Shuler

Was Prominent in Church Brotherhood

Leroy H. Civille, 53 years of age, a prominent figure in Southern California business and religious circles for the past twenty years, died a few minutes after he was taken to the Georgia State Recovery Hospital yesterday, suffering from a possible acute cerebral hemorrhage.

Stricken in his office in the Chamber of Commerce Building, Mr. Civille collapsed in the arms of Rev. Bob Shuler as the two were in a private conference.

Dr. Shuler said that Mr. Civille was in the office about 8:15 a.m. took off his coat and began to talk. Suddenly he placed his hand to his head and said, "I have a pain in my head." Then he stumbled forward and remained unconscious until the time of his death.

POMONA RESIDENT
Efforts were made to summon a physician in the building, but none were to be found and an ambulance was called. Mr. Civille died 45 minutes after he was admitted to the hospital, attendants reported. Employment of an inhalator failed to revive him and his body was removed to the County Morgue and later to the funeral home in the direction of Todd and Reeves Undertaking Company of Pomona.

Mr. Civille resided in Pomona at 305 East Pasadena street. He moved there from Los Angeles twenty years ago.

Funeral arrangements probably will be made today, according to members of his family.

At the time of his death, Mr. Civille was executive secretary of the Federated Church Brotherhood of California and editor of the Brotherhood, official organ of the brotherhood. He also was active as one of the leaders of the Register and Vote League.

ACTIVE IN BUSINESS
He was born in Baltimore, Md., October 18, 1885, and came to Los Angeles and led an active business life, having been associated with the First National Bank of Los Angeles for five years, in the advertising business for five years, and a manufacturer for six years. He moved to Phoenix, Ariz., for three years before making his residence in Pomona.

Two years ago Mr. Civille identified himself with the church brotherhood. He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Pomona. After his retirement, the greater part of his life in Pomona, his business interests were centered in Los Angeles. He was a member of the Masonic order.

Mr. Civille leaves his widow, Mrs. Jessie Civille, 64, a citizen of Pomona, 19 years of age, a student at the University of Southern California; two sons, Leroy, Jr., 14, and Lewis, 12, and his mother, Mrs. Sophie D. Civille, all at the family residence in Pomona.

JURY DECLARES LEWIS GUILTY

any profits, or the return of his investment.

STOCK TRANSFERRED

The Lewis company offered Mrs. Anna Cole, 60-year-old Montreal woman, $10,000 for the use of $15,000 for a thirty-day period, she testified. She transferred 100 shares of American Telephone and Telegraph Company stock to Lewis for shares of his company's stock and $4,000 in the gold notes that the government contended "were so much paper."

Mr. Conn, not the woman, realized on his investment. Conn's life savings were used to pay his loan, he said. Conn testified he is still owed $60,000 of his loan and he offered not to testify against the defendant if it were returned.

After a five-month trial before Superior Judge J. Lewis, Edward Berman were acquitted last May of conspiracy to violate the State Corporate Securities Act by overissuing nearly 400,000 shares of the Julian Petroleum Corporation stock, which precipitated the wrecking of the company and threw it into the hands of receivers.

LEWIS OWN LAWYER
Both expressed confidence that they would also be acquitted of the Federal charge. Lewis, as in the year before, acted as his own lawyer before Judge Davis. He was, however, forced by Justice Davis to forge a more statement of the charges and of his answers, as he did in his previous trial, and was asked to answer his own questions and then answer them again.

Mr. Berman, who operated in the Julian company under the alias of Jack Bennett, was Lewis' right-hand man and known along Spring street as the "night youngster." Through the Julian trial he often was referred to as the "smart stock operator."

COMMENDATION HEARD
A communication signed by Carroll Allen, W. D. Miner, E. A. Maser, E. H. Coffin, E. P. Clark and William M. Garland said:

"We wish to express our confidence in the police department, including your honorable body and the Chief of police. We approve of the desire of the police department to keep the police department out of politics."

Former Police Judge White, in lengthy communication to the board, lauded Chief Davis for his "undaunted devotion to duty, conscientiousness and the high standard of his conduct."

Mr. Berman, who has exhibited the quality of leadership and has the respect and confidence of the police department.

"It would be a grave mistake for a public official to have his services to the city," wrote White. "In common with others who love fair play and above mob rule, I respectfully but earnestly solicit for Chief Davis the consideration that is rightly due to him who has exhibited such fidelity to the department."

"We believe, however," said the resolution, "that while grievous wrong was done Mrs. Collins, the Police Commission nor the chief were contributory factors in the proceedings and we express confidence in the commission and the Chief."

A communication from the Hotel Greeters of America, signed by President Ralph E. Baynes, voiced a hearty protest against the attempt to remove Chief Davis.

Declaring a change is against the interests of the city at large because of the efficiency of the department at present.

when it is not influenced by any self-constituted censor."

Following some discussion as to the day for the hearing of Mrs. Christine Collins in the psychiatric ward for refusing to recognize an impostor as her missing son, was set for 9:30 a.m. No formal motion of Commissioner Ollmire and seconded by Commissioner Pierce.

Commissioner Ollmire, who has been out of the city ever since the Jones fracas came up, attended yesterday's meeting.

PLEASED BY TRIBUTE

When Secretary Jeffers presented the pile of resolutions, letters and telegrams to the commission, President Schweitzer remarked that it was a pleasure, indeed, for the commission to receive them and he regretted that there was not time in which to read them all. He said that if one was read about, in fairness the others also must be read.

However, he directed Jeffers to have them on file for the perusal of any who desire to read them.

In addition to the resolutions and letters already published last night, the Chief and the police department there was a resolution from the Associated District Newspapers, of which Greely Kots is secretary, suggesting that there should be a law against the "smart stock operator."

Mr. Berman, who operated in the Julian company under the alias of Jack Bennett, was Lewis' right-hand man and known along Spring street as the "night youngster."

DAVIS PRAISED

A letter from Henry W. Venizas, secretary of the Apartment-House Association, said, in part, as follows:

"It is the opinion of the Apartment-House Association of Los Angeles County, Inc., that Chief of Police James E. Davis has shown himself in marked degree an able, efficient, courageous and considerate police servant. He is our opinion that the demand for his removal has been incited by pettiness and is not designed to effect any public good whatsoever."

The ancient Hebrews had a goat that was burdened with a stone. So the modern use of a stone isn't anything new.

If it is true that people of the same type are antagonists, Philadelphia police should make short work of the criminal.

The silent candidate wins. The number of partisans never is as great as the number of those who don't give a damn.

Why hate the man who can see the truth of the situation when you don't? A cripple can't run if you can, but you don't care him.

One way to be remembered posterity is to be a city official and sign the bonds.

Mrs. Toss is the daughter of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Herren, in South Wilton Place, and is planning to leave tomorrow for the north, where she will join her husband in Bremerton, Wash. Commander Toss has taken his ship, the Cuyama, up for repairs at the navy yards, and after six weeks they will return to Coronado, where the latter will be stationed for the remaining years of his detail. Mrs. Toss has a host of friends in the mountains with whom she is enjoying a delightful visit.

tourrette (Elizabeth) M. Rankine, who was one of the events of the 30th inst. The affair will take place at the Rankine home in Norton Avenue and the guests will include Mr. and Mrs. La Tourrette and their honeymoon temporary home of the latter's parents.

and Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Seara, Jr., Myron Selman, James Smith, Jr., Herbert Tietzen and Raymond Tracy.

Returned Home

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Thomas, 415 South Las Palmas avenue, have just returned home from a visit to Detroit and New York City. They came back to the coast through the Panama Canal, passing three days in the Canal Zone, and were four days in with Mr. Thomas's sister, Mrs. Raymond A. Dart, and her husband, Dr. Dart, who is a surgeon in the Georgia Hospital there.

New Address

Coming up from their summer home, La Casita Sogno in Santa Monica, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Frankel have taken apartments in the new section of the Biltmore where they will remain until the winter. The latter's mother, Mrs. Alice Cristina Bartlett, sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tipton Stuck, have taken apartments adjoining and all are taking up their residence in the new section. Mrs. Alice Cristina Bartlett McKeeley, nephew of Mrs. Bartlett, is to be with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankel entertained last evening with a dinner at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George C. and Mrs. and Mrs. Edward J. Nease, other guests including Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Hellman, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips.

Mr. Frankel is the very efficient general chairman of the women's committee of the Philharmonic Orchestra and is prominent in most all of the musical activities of the Southland and is well known in many of the national musical organizations.

Lanterns Before Ball Game

One of the charmingly perfect affairs of the coming week will be the football breakfast which will take place November 10, at the home of Mrs. Rufus Von Kleinmuntz, at 78 Wilshire.

This breakfast under the direction of the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, of which Mrs. Von Kleinmuntz is a member, will be served on the tenth football game between the University of Southern California and the University of Southern California, the college colors furnishing the motif of decoration.

The guests of honor for the day include all active Pi Beta Phi from the University of Southern Calif., Monroe Hamilton, who was graduated from the latter university, and Miss Francis Loftus, alumna of the local school. A number of arrangements have been made to ensure a happy time for all.

Mr. Von Kleinmuntz's

hospitality will be a great contribute to the exhilaration always attendant on a football game.

Others who will receive are Mrs. John D'Aule, Mrs. Walter Burbank, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. George Robbin Wright, Miss Ethel Morris, Miss Julia Eley and Martha Barnard. More than 200 invitations were issued.

Miss Eley was gowned in gray crepe de chine with pink trimming, while she was all in orange of Cecile Brunner, a little of the valley and fern. Autumn flowers in golden shades were used throughout the house, chrysanthemums and ferns predominating. Yellow canaries in silver holders were also decorative features. A window box with a shower of small bells was hung over the dining-room table. During the buffet supper Mr. Eley's sister, Mrs. Warren Thomas, poured many a glass of orange juice.

OLYMPICS TO BENEFIT LAND VALUE

Garland Declares Owners of Real Estate Will Feel Results After Election

Owners of real estate in California will begin realizing benefits from the bringing here of Olympic Games long before 1932, believes William Mac Garland, president of the California Tenth Olympiad Association.

"Already investment money has begun to move into California," said Mr. Garland. "It will move rapidly as soon as it is made evident that we are going to have the historic world contests on a scale as splendid as to draw an attendance that in itself will be a record."

Garland, intelligent real estate owner, dealer, investor and salesman, knows that increase of population means increase of realty values. That has been tremendously demonstrated here within the last decade.

"Furthermore, it has been demonstrated that while millions of people can be induced to visit California, all of whom come to stay, there is no reason to leave it again. Some of them don't have to go away again and will not, any more than they would now."

"Keen investors know this. They know that the value of land in California will be increased somewhat in actual and much in potential or speculative, value on November 7, next, if election day sees the recording to the ballot of the amendment to the state constitution.

"The will begin acquiring holdings here to make money by owning real estate as the population increases. Make up your mind now to register a 'yes' vote next Tuesday, November 7, if you want to do something for yourself and your State."

It was said yesterday at his home at 2974 Wilshire Boulevard that his most serious injury was a broken scapula. The director was hoisted to the ground when his mount stumbled. It was thought at first he had a basal fracture of the skull. Members of his family said his condition is progressive, rapidly for the better and that he will be able to return to the studio within a short time.

BATTLE STARTS FOR TAX PLAN

State-wide Radio Campaign to be Made

Gov. Young Will Take Stump for Measure

Battery of Speakers Urging Favorable Vote

A State-wide radio campaign urging citizens to vote "yes" on the constitutional amendment on taxation, which is Proposition No. 3 on Tuesday's ballot, opened here last night with County Assessor Hopkins explaining the measure. He pointed out how the present illegal method of taxing banks will be corrected and the present arbitrary method of assessing corporate franchises will be remedied.

Most important, however, the amendment will be the equitable basis for the taxation of intangibles, such as stocks and bonds of foreign corporations, merchants' book accounts and solvent credits. In a prepared statement, Mr. Hopkins said:

"Section 4 of the proposed amendment is a re-enactment of the popular 7 per cent law in a more favorable form. The 7 per cent valuation of intangibles was first proposed in 1926 and 1927, as will be remembered, was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court in 1928.

COUNCIL CRITIC
LABELED 'LIAR'

Protesting Lawyer "Called" for Statement

Street Improvement Objector
Defied by DavisSergeant-at-Arms Prevents Physical Encounter

J. D. McCarthy, a lawyer who has been attacking street openings and widenings in various parts of the city and particularly denouncing the City Council and the Traffic Commission, was given the lie by Councilman Davis at the meeting yesterday afternoon of the City Council's Street Opening and Widening Committee.

McCarthy had made a long speech, attacking the proposed opening and widening of Third street from Figueroa street to Vermont avenue. During the course of his remarks he asserted that the Traffic Commission had said that the Council was under the rule and domination of the commission and by inference implied that the commission was backed by the paving companies.

CALLS LAWYER LIAR

"McCarthy, you are a liar!" said Councilman Davis, who jumped up from his seat at the committee table and stared at Edward McCarthy. The latter is about twice Davis' size. McCarthy started for Davis. Sergeant-at-Arms Daniels was between the two men when they met and headed off any exchange of blows. Both men went back to their seats.

There was a crowd of about 300 men and women present. When the trouble between Davis and McCarthy started the people jumped to their feet and there was shouting and excitement.

ABUSE ENDURED

The hearing afterward proceeded in a calm, businesslike manner. McCarthy, in whose district the proposed improvement is located, addressed the committee and said that he had stood McCarthy's abuse at Council and district meetings on the Third-street matter, but had made no protest as he (Foster) believed that 75 percent of the citizens in his district favored the improvement and 25 percent they will be proud of it if it is put through. Foster called attention to the fact that he had secured an allocation of $500 by the Council toward the expense of improving the street after it is opened and widened.

EX-MEMBER SCORED

Councilman Barnes, senior member of the Council and acting chairman of the committee, said that a large number of the property owners in the district had endorsed the starting of the proceedings and that there had been few protests. He also called attention to the fact that ex-Councilman Barnes, who is now operating the project, was chairman of the Council's Street Opening and Widening Committee when the proceedings were started and secured an allocation of general public funds as a contribution toward the cost.

Councilman Barnes later replied that Barnes' facts were correct, but defended himself by saying that "the people" have changed their minds and that the widening will cost more than was estimated.

The committee took no action yesterday. The Council's formal hearing on amendments for the third-street opening and widening is set for November 5.

PARKS FOR ALL STATE
PROMISEDDifferent Sections Sure of Consideration if Bonds
Carry, Says Expert

Each and every section of California is to be given equal consideration in the selection of State parks in case the bond issue on next Tuesday's ballot carries, according to a statement yesterday by Councilman Lee O. Davis, the city planning expert, who is making a survey of the more than 300 sites suggested to the Park Commission as suitable for beach, mountain or desert recreation areas. One hundred and five of these sites are in Southern California.

"Pending complete comparison of all the projects the commission in fairness cannot make up its mind in advance about any of them," said Mr. Davis. "We can only say that each one of the twelve districts in which the State has been divided has projects of real merit and importance."

The prospects are that among the sites now under consideration the selection will be made if the bond carries which is to be obtained by a large and well-balanced variety of parks—coast, forest, mountain, desert and historical, scientific, scenic and recreational interests.

It also shows a well-balanced geographical distribution in the State.

Mr. Olmsted joined with Henry W. O'Malley and May, Frederick Russell Burnham, members of the Park Commission, in urging a favorable vote on the measure, which will appear on the ballot as Proposition No. 4.

Many Cities

The reputation of the Philharmonic Orchestra of this city has reached the stage where other communities are anxious to hear it and therefore it will undertake a five weeks' tour of the Northwest next fall, according to an announcement yesterday by its founder, William Clark, Jr. The tour, which will consist of the cities in the tenth year of the orchestra's existence under the support of Mr. Clark, will be under the direction of its manager, Caroline E.
